

The area opposite of keels creek on the kings river (roughly 4 miles up river from 62) has been sold to vacation home developers and an entire forest of pines removed. This has caused the bank to collapse creating extra sediment in the river.

It needs immediate attention else the entire lower kings will be shut off from breeding.